Duplicity Ron Stevenson

Set in Vermont in the seventies. A naive young woman is betrayed and used by a heartless college playboy. She is devastated by his deceit and reacts with bitterness and scorn. But then, when she visits her sister, during spring break, she meets someone new and her heart starts to mend. Until she discovers that her new lover is not who he seems to be. She returns to college more embittered than ever. He follows her there and convinces her to come with him on a voyage to discover the truth. But what, exactly, is that truth and, what's more, does she really want to know?
