While up late one night divulging their fantasies, Brandy goes out on a limb and confesses to her husband that she has always had a fantasy of being taken by a black man.

Expecting her husband to be mad, or at the least, insecure about her revelation, Mike instead shocks her by saying he will agree to let her live it out-- if he can watch the whole thing.

And to her surprise, he just happens to know the perfect guy to make it happen. But will it turn out to be much more than he bargained for?
