Online Dating, Real Life Humor, Offline Danger: (Ph)ishing For Love Amy Glynn McLaughlin

This book offers a unique perspective from other online dating books as it shares a compilation of the author's dating experiences ranging from the hilarious escapades to the dangerous encounters. It is a heartfelt personal journey over three years of the challenges and lessons of online dating, offering guidelines and helpful suggestions to prevent others from falling victim to similar blunders. After coming face to face with the lies and deceit of a fraudulent doctor, Amy's story captured the attention of The Dr. Phil Show when she reached out to them for help. While attempts made to expose & mediate the situation came to a dead end, the journey and revelations along the way were shocking. Additionally, Amy speaks with genuine honesty about living and dealing with HSV1 (Herpes) within her marriage and eventually out in the dating world, transforming herself from having feelings of isolation and shame, to feelings of value and self worth. She clears up fact from fiction regarding STDs, as well as sharing real concerns that EVERY dater should know. Amy's experiences and research will prove this book to be of incredible value and a necessary read for those in the midst of, or are contemplating online dating, as well as being beneficial to caring friends and family.
