Miles to Go: Book One of the Escape the Machine Trilogy (Volume 1) Mr. John C. Lunsford

Miles to Go asks us to question what is at stake at the core of being human. In the first book of his riveting science fiction trilogy, John Lunsford explores the very essence of the human spirit and the desire of a 34,000-year-old android to escape the machine that has become his prison. Meanwhile, an international consortium races at all costs to kill nanotechnology, the key to that escape. They have targeted scientist Grant Thornton, who wants to rebuild the world, and Ordwyn Summers, a cop who wants to protect him. The race is on. Are we prepared for the unknown that awaits us if we become what we build? Does that future, with its certainty of artificial intelligence, hold our transformation or our extinction?
