Caroline Davie is living in a nightmare.

In one loud screech of her tires, she lost both her husband and unborn child. With the burden of pain and guilt on her tired shoulders, she quickly flees the memories trapped in her small town, leaving behind the support of her grieving family.

Through her months long whirlwind of loss and regret, she somehow finds herself working for billionaire CEO Jake Roma.

Jake, while handsome and suave, is cold. Dealing with his own painful past, the two quickly cling to each other in the floundering of their agony.

The flowers of love, passion, and happiness begin to bloom in Caroline once more, but can she handle the light of new love when all she feels she deserves is darkness?
