Are you serving in a position of leadership? Do you want to be remembered as a great leader long after your term of service to your organization is over? This ebook can help inspire you to provide memorable organizational leadership! In 'Business Leadership Lessons from Paul the Apostle', Leo Wiltshire (M. A. in Organizational Leadership) explores how the writings and life events of St. Paul, along with modern leadership theory and teachings, and encouraging examples set by modern-day leaders can inspire all people in positions of influence to seek success within their organizations by serving others rather than themselves. By pursuing a path of servant leadership, leaders can leave a lasting positive legacy that, like Paul's, may survive long after their service has ended. For those not in professional leadership positions, this book presents it's information as valuable life lessons along with uplifting stories of great modern-day leaders. Includes a foreword written by Kathleen Patterson, Ph.D. [Leo Wiltshire is also the author of 'Reign of the Vampire: A Tribute to the Perseverance of Bela Lugosi', published in 2015.]
