Called To Serve Again tells the story of Bill Hughes, a recent college graduate who has everything going for him: a new job, two beautiful daughters, and a loving wife. However, when he is tragically killed in a car accident, Bill reluctantly learns there is no such thing as coincidence, and there was a special reason for his death. The events that transpire have eternal consequences not only for Bill and his wife, but also for his nineteen-year-old brother who is struggling with his decision whether to serve a mission for the LDS Church. This book follows Bill and his family through a unique and faith-promoting journey told from both sides of the veil that will appeal to adult and young adult readers alike.
