News Print Poetry 2012 Volume 2: April to June Catherine Giordano

News Print Poetry is a unique form of poetry similar to "found poetry" or "blackout poetry." There are poems hidden in your newspaper if you know how to find them. Volume 2 of "News Print Poetry 2012" contains 101 poems written from April to June. Every day one or more news stories are taken from the Orlando Sentinel and transformed into a poem by selecting the desired words, keeping all words in their original order, and not adding any words. Taken together, the poems are a retrospective of the year's events and provide a panoramic view of our society. Taken individually, each poem provides an inspirational, amusing or poignant view--sometimes all three at the same time--of the topic.
