Saving Henry Rusty L Savage

On a warm fall day in late September, a fifteen-year-old boy and his twin sister step off a city bus in front of the gate at the county fair. It is opening day, and they expect to be there all day and ride the bus home that night full of the joy and excitement of it all. But before the day ends, tragedy strikes, and the lives of two families are changed forever. Danny knows that it must be something to find, an answer to save his friend.
