What every girl should know ... about boys and relationships Mia Carroll

What every girl should know about boys and relationships was originally written as a gift to five young girls by their favorite aunt.

"I wanted to give my nieces some sort of guidebook for when they started dating," says Carroll.

"The book contains 222 recommendations and suggestions on boys and relationships. They are simple and to the point. With any luck this book could prevent a broken heart or two. At the very least, I hope it puts a smile on your face".

- * Don't chase boys. They will come to you.
- * Chivalry is never outdated.
- * Respect yourself.
- * Sweet doesn't mean pushover.
- * Always mean what you say.
- * Everybody has baggage.

What every girl should know about boys and relationships is the perfect gift for any girl.
