Chris's mother wanted a girl, and got the next best thing -- a son who loved her treating him like her pretty little daughter. Surviving childhood and adolescence, with the relentless cruel taunting they brought, was no easy task, but Chris managed it, moved to the City, and, as a young adult, became a very in-demand boy maid. But how will he deal with his fiancée's campaign to get him out of his pretty, frilly things, and into more masculine attire?
