Like. Comment. Kill.

Online dating? Not quite.

Forced to live in seclusion, her only contact with the outside world is with her online chat buddies. She masquerades behind different screen names with every person except with one: Confessor. To him, and only him, she is Blackbird.

Blackbird makes her living buying and selling used computers online. Though typically immune to the personal contents of the computers she buys, something on her newest acquisition stops her cold: a picture of the man who killed her father years earlier.

As she becomes more obsessed with Nick, the previous owner of the machine, she confides in Confessor. A dead body --Nick's girlfriend-- pulls Blackbird out of her nest and to Tennessee to find the murderer, and to reclaim her life. Torn between two men, and pining for the mysterious Confessor, Blackbird's past is revealed as she tries to solve the mystery of Nick's dead girlfriend, and avenge her father's murder.
