Narco Terrorism - How Governments Around the World Have Used the Drug Trade to Finance and Further Terrorist Activities [Rachel Ehrenfeld]

Discusses how governments from around the world, including Bulgaria, Cuba, Nicaragua, Syria and others, have, over the last 25 years, initiated, developed and in some cases virtually dominated the drug business to finance terrorist activities. The author of this book bases her research and findings around the point that unless we recognize the Geo-political aspects of the situation, the drug problem will be fought on the wrong fronts in the wrong way and with little chance of victory.
