Three excellent works in one book, exploring the theme of Christian service, and how we can apply Biblical principles today. As always, Swindoll includes sounds Bible based teaching, modern day examples, and humor to expand these principles and help us understand them in our own contexts. If you are looking for structured teaching with bullet points then this is not for you, its more conversational, and I can imagine Swindoll sitting down with folk from his church and talking pretty much in the same way he writes
