As an online entrepreneur, you know that your company needs a presence on Facebook and Twitter. But in today's competitive online world of marketing, having a page is not enough. In this book, Beth Neibert will teach you how to quickly distinguish your business from the millions of unremarkable, nondescript companies by taking full advantage of the little-known marketing resources available on these two sites and more. Her rarely-used strategies, acquired through extensive research and international travel, include specifics on how to effectively set up your profile on a social site that is initially more vital and more professionally rewarding for entrepreneurs than Facebook and Twitter combined! The "7 Marketing Success Strategies for the Online Entrepreneur" uncovers the secrets of several online experts, giving you the tools you need to build a vast, loyal list of organizations and individuals who are dedicated to you and your brand – without the $5,000 price tag!
