Moral Foundations: An Introduction to Ethics Alexander Skutch

Alexander Skutch—world famous ornithologist, philosopher and author of over 30 books—believed that to build a satisfying moral edifice we need an ample and firm foundation. Moral Foundations brilliantly lays out for the reader the ways in which we are products of harmonization, a process that unites the crude elements of the world in harmonious patterns, A tour de force of analysis and critical thinking, Moral Foundations is also an important contribution to the study of ethics and philosophy.
